

The no-call policy that is used in Indiana has made it much better at my home because we are not constantly harrassed by salesmen who will not take no for an answer. There are also businesses that call at least two or three times a day even after you request that your name be taken off of their list. Please do not change this policy.